Conclusion

It is highly advised to seek a refund only in extreme cases, as you will miss out on a huge opportunity of learning with Rao Academy with great products. That being said, it does not mean that you should not avail of the refund services at Rao academy; it is your right if you are unsatisfied with the services.

However, we suggest you try to settle the issue and take further classes or enrol in a different course. But, if you decide to take a refund and move on, we will help you at every step of the refund process.
